

Business Management Programme structure

Examination Structure

The Business Management Programme is offered at Certificate, Diploma and Advanced Diploma level. The subjects and requirements for each level are indicated below.

Certificate

All four subjects must be passed:

- Introduction to Business
- Introduction to Business Communication
- Introduction to Accounting
- Introduction to Quantitative Methods

Diploma part 1

All four subjects must be passed:

- Organisational Behaviour
- Financial Accounting
- Economic Principles and their Application to Business
- Quantitative Methods for Business and Management

Diploma part 2

Three Compulsory subjects:

- Human Resource Management
- Marketing Policy , Planning and Communication
- Management in Action

Plus two from:

- Systems Analysis and Design
- Managerial Accounting
- Principles of Business Law
- Concepts and Principles of Islamic Economics

Advanced Diploma

Three Compulsory subjects:

- Corporate Strategy and Planning
- Managing in Organisations
- International Business Case Study

Plus two from the following options:

- Strategic Marketing Management
- Strategic Human Resource Management for Business Organisation
- Corporate Finance
- Managing the Information Resource
- Islamic Finance